

Mexico Education Mission 09 – 12 October 2018

The Department for International Trade (DIT) and The British Educational Suppliers Association (BESA) are organising an education trade mission to Mexico to coincide with the BETT Latam, which takes place 11- 12 October 2018.

Why take part?

This offer is open to all UK companies and organisations looking to develop their international education and training partnerships with decision makers in Latin America.

The mission will give companies the chance to network with high calibre regional delegates.

As part of the mission, you will also have the opportunity to have 1-2-1 meetings with at least three potential buyers from Mexico.

Programme

09 October: Meetings in Mexico City
10 October: Meetings in the state of Puebla
11 October: 1-2-1 meetings at Bett Latam
12 October: 1-2-1 meetings at Bett Latam /
Free to attend Expo
End of mission

Mission Costs

The mission is subsidised by DIT to lower the cost of the mission.

- BESA Members: £350+vat
- Non-Members: £350 + BESA fee (£250) + vat

Please note that if you are taking part in BETT Latam exhibition you can take part in the mission and no extra cost. This applies for members and non-members. For more information on taking part at the exhibition and for grants available for your stand please click here

Latin America Key Facts

The region has made great progress in educational coverage; almost all children attend primary school and access to secondary education has increased considerably. Most educational systems in the region have implemented various types of administrative and institutional reforms that have enabled reach for places and communities that had no access to education services in the early 1990s.

Mexico Key Facts

Mexico have one of the biggest proportions between the members of the OECD in students to get into higher education in fields of science.

Mexico has the second largest education system in Latin America

Over 36 million students are enrolled at different levels. 31 million in Public Education and 5 million in Private Education

For more information or book a space in the mission, please complete the booking form and email it to lois@besa.org.uk

There are a limited number of spaces available!